

Call for Applications: Professor Position

1. Position

Professor (Full-time) of Division of Clinical Medicine and Social Implementation, Research Center for Child Mental Development, Kanazawa University

2. Job description and research area

Principal Investigator who are assigned as Professor and obliged to vigorous international and multi-disciplinary research projects in the Division of Clinical Medicine and Social Implementation as described below.

This research center at Kanazawa University started in October 2007 and currently consists of three divisions: (i) Basic Science and Translational Research, (ii) Clinical Medicine and Social Implementation, and (iii) Integrated Art and Sciences and Local Community Support for Children's Mental Health Care.

The main pursuits of these divisions are (i) to elucidate molecular mechanisms for child mental and brain development and generate drugs that modulate social behaviors, (ii) to establish fundamental understanding and diagnostic systems for neurodevelopmental disorders based on brain function measurements [e.g., magnetoencephalography (MEG)], and (iii) to develop science-based supporting programs, educational materials, and teacher-training courses. Detailed information is given at the following URLs:

<http://kodomokokoro.w3.kanazawa-u.ac.jp/> and

<https://www.ugscd-osaka-u.ne.jp/>

3. Term of appointment: Fixed-term (5 years). Reviewed at the third year after arrival. Can be re-appointed and tenured after review the following items:

- (1) Research publications
- (2) Records of teaching and training
- (3) Grants, fellowships, and awards
- (4) Activities in academic associations
- (5) Additional activities such as status of research achievements, industry-academia collaboration, social contribution, and clinical practice
- (6) Other items that the review committee deems particularly necessary

4. Salary: Annual salary system of Kanazawa University is applied as described (in Japanese) in

<http://www.kanazawa-u.ac.jp/university/administration/regulation/rules>

5. Arrival time at the post

At the earliest possible date on or after February 1, 2026

6. Qualifications. Applicants should have:

- (1) a Ph.D. or equivalent degree
- (2) an excellent achievement in clinical neuroscience of child mental and brain development
- (3) a person who can actively participate in interactive research and fair operations in the Research Center for Child Mental Development, Kanazawa University
- (4) a person with a strong motivation to supervise graduate students and perform administrative tasks at the Kanazawa School of the United Graduate School of Child Development, The University of Osaka, Kanazawa University, Hamamatsu University School of Medicine, Chiba University and University of Fukui
- (5) abundant experience in international and multi-institutional joint research and enthusiasm for such projects

7. Documents for application (documents must be written in Japanese or English)

- (1) Curriculum vitae - 1 set
 - (2) Publication list (original papers, review articles, etc.) - 1 set
 - (3) Reprint(s) of main original 10 papers (PDF files) - 1 set
 - (4) Outline of past research and future project
(about 2,000 characters in Japanese or 1,000 words in English) - 1 set
 - (5) Names and contact information for two references
- * E-mail address and contact address must be provided in the curriculum vitae.
* Submit hard copies to the mailing address provided below. Electronic data of these documents also must be submitted.

8. Deadline for application

September 30, 2025 at 17:00 (JST, UTC + 9)

9. Mailing address

Shigeru Yokoyama, M.D., Ph.D.
Professor
Research Center for Child Mental Development
Kanazawa University
13-1 Takara-machi, Kanazawa City
Ishikawa 920-8640
JAPAN

10. Contact information

For job description

Shigeru Yokoyama, M.D., Ph.D.
Professor
Research Center for Child Mental Development
Kanazawa University
E-mail: shigeruy@med.kanazawa-u.ac.jp

For administrative matters

c/o Misono Ikeda, Section Chief
Human Resources Section, General Affairs Division, Medical, Pharmaceutical and Health Administration Department, Kanazawa University
TEL +81-76-265-2112, FAX +81-76-234-4202
e-mail: t-jinji@adm.kanazawa-u.ac.jp

11. Additional statements

- (1) Kanazawa University is working to improve faculty members' teaching skills in English and strengthen English education on the premise of increasing the number of subjects offered in English.
- (2) We promote the development of diversity in the research and education environment and welcome applications from female researchers in accordance with the purport of the Basic Act for Gender Equal Society. Detailed information is given at the following URL:
<https://cdl.w3.kanazawa-u.ac.jp/en/>
- (3) During the selection process, we may ask the applicant to come to our university to give a lecture (travel expenses are not provided) or may offer an online lecture.

Form 1

Curriculum vitae

Present address:

TEL:

E-mail:

Name:

Nationality

Date of birth (YYYY/MM/DD):

Current job title and affiliation:

License:

Academic degree:

Degree name:

University name:

Date of acquisition (YYYY/MM/DD):

Educational history (after entering high school):

Job history:

Member of academic societies (period, the name of the academic society, job title)

Educational achievements (the last 5 years, subjects in charge, the number of students supervised in graduate schools, etc.)

Other special notes (educational workshops, student support, management and administration, concurrent works, social contribution, patent, etc.)

Awards and punishments

Scientific research grants

(Recipient names, grant names, total amounts, periods)

Picture

1. 36-40 mm long

24-30 mm wide

2. the applicant only,
from the chest up.

Form 2

List of publications and achievements

I. Books

II. Review articles

III. Research papers (should be categorized by research fields, and the titles should be prefixed with A, B, C ...)

IV. Conference presentations (In case of an international conference, it is limited to the presenting speaker. In case of domestic academic conferences, limited to special lectures, educational lectures, symposiums, workshops, etc.)

Notes

1. For section I, II and III, you can write in any format if author names, paper titles, journal name/book titles, volumes, pages (the first page to the last page), publisher names, and years of publication are included. Please attach a copy of the publication certificate if the paper is in press.
2. For sections I and III, include information about impact factors and times cited at the date of this application. Use impact factors provided by Clarivate Analytics and times cited provided by Scopus.
3. Use A4/letter size paper.
4. Books, review articles, research papers and conference presentation should be listed in chronological order and put numbers from the latest. The name of the applicant should be underlined. In the case that the applicant was the corresponding author, please write this information.
5. For the 10 most important papers, which will have PDF files included in the application documents, draw circles next to the corresponding papers in the publication list..
6. For your dissertation paper, please indicate so in the list.